With works by Roy Kinzer, Zahra Nazari, and Kirstin J. Nelson, the exhibition runs from October 3-October 31, 2015, and presents a study into the nature of spatial perspective, architectural history, and dynamic repurposing. The result is art that resonates with both personal significance and historical meanings.

Organized by co-curators Akaash Mehta and Minna Packer, Spatial Planes & Timeless Dimensions offers an opportunity to view each artist's unique insight and practice.
